not be possible for congress to take the steps necessary for the return of the roads to private ownership by March 1.

Pressure on Congress Strong pressure is being brought to bear on congress to amend the federal control act making it possible to retain the resads for at least two years more and possibly longer. Five years has been suggested maximum. This pressure is said to come from committees and organi zations in all parts of the country. the chief argument used being that the return of the railroads at this time would add to the already high cost of living. > Increase Cumulative "The consumer catches the insaler, retailer and often the commission man as to each single material that enters into a finished article. then as to the article itself. Director General Hines, has stated that the ratio was five fold. In other words, he said that if the rates were increased $300,000,000 the consumer would pay to the extent of $1.-500,000,000. An increase of $875,-000,000 in freight rates would mean the consumer would have to pay $4,-

375.000.000 This would have an immediate effect of increasing the living cost of families of five by something like $215 a year." Commissioner Wooley expressed himself of the opinion that within six months and surely within a year, the railroads would come back to the interstate commerce commission with just as good a case as they will make March I for another increase in freight rates.

Quotes President "Why should this be necessary, said the commissioner, "when only a few months ago the president stated that an increase in freight rates at this time would not be in the public interest, and Director General Hines has said repeatedly in the past weeks that no increase will be necessary if the roads are retained under federal control-this in spite of the fact that the coal strike caused the roads to fail to earn the standard return by approximately $55,-000,000 in November and that another falling short of the standard return, though of smaller proportions, is to be expected from the same cause, for December.' The commissioner declared he was The loss was not discovered until opposed to government ownership if a way could be found by which the roads could be economically and efficiently handled in the interest of the public and stockholders alike, in his opinion, however, 'the only hope in preventing it lies in holding the roads for a period that will carry us over the reconstruction days and back to normal."

They Are Planting Corn on WALKILL

Down in Clay County, Florida, on Walkill Farms, they are plowing and planting corn and potatoes and in April or May these crops will be harvested and marketed. Early potatoes bring fancy prices, $6.00 to $11.00 a barrel, The cattle and hogs are grazing in green pastures—NOW.

Three crops a year is the rule—not the exception.

Live stock can be raised cheaper than in Ohio. Forage crops yield as high as 25 tons per acre and good crops of corn, clover, potatoes, yelvet beans, cane, oats, etc., are grown.

GREAT FOR EMERGENCIES

Cura Ointment Should Be In Every Home.

There never was known a more reliable ointment than San Cura. In most every case where it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centreville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

It has great healing and antiseptic value. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill to relieve any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheuma, boiles carbuncles ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores, chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies for bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, be-cause it relieves the pain and is an-tiseptic and healing. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 30c, 60c and $1.20 a jar at Sayre & Hemp-

San Cura Ointment Should Be In Every Home.

There never was known a more reliable ointment than San Cura. In most every case where it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centreville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

It has great healing and antiseptic value. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill to relieve any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheuma, boiles carbuncies ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores, chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies for bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it relieves the pain and is antiseptic and healing. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 30c, 60c and $1.20 a jar at Sayre & Hemp-

Elmer Hamilton, who is head of the shipping department for Eavey & Company, is the next in point of length of service, having been connected with the wholesale grocery for 27 years. His subject at the banquet was "My First Job" and it is said that Mr. Hamilton went to work at the Eavey wholesale grocery when he became old enough to work and has held the position ever since, it really being his first position.

In the 51 years of its existence, Eavey & Company have done much to advertise Xenia throughout the country. Their name appears on the wrappers on canned goods from bright shelves of the big city grocery to the dust laden niche in the country general store.

For this reason the name "Eavey & Company" has come to be a byword among grocerymen over the So well known is the name that it has been easy for traveling men to dispose of Eavey quality goods and the business has grown and prospered accordingly until it stands now for one of the largest wholesale grocery companies in this section of the country.

QUIXOTIC-A CANDIDATE WITHOUT A PARTY.

The unequivocal declaration by the New York World for Herbert C. Hoover for President, no matter ... what party nominates him, fell like a bomb in the political circles of the national capital. Shell splinters reached Republican quarters, but the center of the explosion was in Democratic ranks, particularly those where A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, was regarded as the administration favorite son.

Most of the old-line Democratic leaders disavowed unhesitatingly any perturbation over the declaration for Mr. Hoover by one of the leading Democratic papers of the nation. They insisted their emotions were not stirred because they were sure Mr. Hoover was a Republican.

Republican leaders extracted undiluted joy from the discomfiture of Democrats, especially that of the Palmer boomers, and contend that the world's declaration left no doubt that Mr. Hoover was a Democrat.

The two parties are in much the same position in their "claims" for Mr. Hoover. The Democrats say he belongs to the Republicans and the Republicans say he belongs to the Democrats.

Jane and Betty came into the shop the next day and to my surprise Mary told them of her plan. I had not believed her in earnest until then. But I began to see she really meant to try to keep house for herself even if it were on a most limit-

"You see I am sick to death of living the way I do!" she declared. don't blame any man for giving his wife the good-bye signal who makes him live in a boarding house all his life. I may get tired of it, Gerry says I will. But I am going to try it if it is the last thing I ever do.

"I think you are doing right, Mary. You'll have a lot of fun, and perhaps make a lot of mistakes at first. But if you can find a cozy place that doesn't cost too much, so you will be worried because of the expense; there is nothing like having a place of your own. Jane and I both tried boarding-Jane even after she was married-but you have the right idea. Get a place all your own, do as you like in it, and be happy and independent."

I had listened quietly until then. The girls evidently did not know I had heard. Now I said: "I don't see but that Mary does as she likes where she is." "Yes, but it is so different." Jane remarked turning to me. "You know I was hard to convince,-I taught after I was married because I hated to give up my position ,and my salshay isn't the only vehicle that won't ary. But I wouldn't go back for stand without hitching, according to anything-not unless Carson were sick and couldn't support me.

"I should think you might have gone right on teaching. Your hours aren't long in the schools," I ob-observer ,but a successful school planned and arranged out of school hours. I found I could not be a good wife, not what Carson wanted, when for the creek," said Mr. Long. "And my time and thoughts were upon everything save him. Men may be selfish-1 guess they are, even the best of them; but when I saw that Carson was unhappy, disappointed in me because I would not give up my work and make a home for him, why I sort of figured that his love was more important than anything else to me. I was not going to run the chance of losing him by refusing to do as he wanted me to.

"I guess you wouldn't have lost husband." I broke in.

"I know! but, he was to me, and he might also be attractive to some other woman who would do more than I would do to please him. Then he has been so full of pep, so ambitious to get on since gave up my work he has nearly made up all we lost by my throwing up my position. He has been advanced twice since I stopped bringing home a pay enevlope. We are very com-fortable, and very happy. I guess men like a home better than we women imagine."

"Of course they do!" Betty spoke up decidedly. Did you ever talk to a man who didn't want to put his legs under his own table, and say They want to smoke a pipe, to sit in their shirt sleeves if it is warm weather, and they all think a pile of their stemachs. At least any man I ever have known does, Frank included."

All this talk had not gone on interruptedly. Both Betty and Jane had bought hats, and it had filtered thru the talk of styles, and becoming colors. I had taken little part in ne conversation, as I was selling the hats. I was anxious the girls should get the very best value possible for their money, as well as to have something becoming.

I had listened to every word, however. Someway I resented that no matter where I was, who with, the talk always seemed to veer around to men wanting a home. I also re sented my own feeling of annoyance. Hadn't Robert and I talked it over and decided we were doing the right thing to wait? But all this talk of men wanting a home, home cooking and other comforts, made me uncomfortable, if not downright unhappy.

Then too, I know Robert was not as contented as were Frank Weed and Carson Murphy; also that he was not doing as well in business. Tomorrow-Robert Dines at Marion Hoveys.

The unequivocal declaration by the New York World for Herbert C. Hoover for President, no matter what party nominates him, fell like a bomb in the political circles of the national capital. Sprays and gargles and local remedies do not touch a cough of this kind. The system must be built up to throw it off.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in chape to assimilate food. As a builder of fiesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting dicases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

Dayton, O., Jan. 24 .- "With the total reported 391, the influenza sitwhole civilized world shell shocked, living a-non-normal life, and with sensibilities abnormally acute, there never was a time in all history when it is more important that the English speaking people should stand together, should understand and appreciate the principles and objects of each other," declared Hon. William R. Riddell, justice of the supreme court of Ontario, Canada, yesterday before the meeting of the Ohio State Bar Association-Judge Riddell delivered a scholarly address on "What Is the British Empire?" assailing those who seek to strain the friendly relations between Great Britain and America, and feelingly paying a tribute to the American boys who fought with the Canadians during the late war.

The jurist ironically referred to the great publicity given the sailing of the Buford with 30 Reds, saing that Canada had shipped out over 1,000 Reds, although nothing had been said about

Dayton, O., Jan. 24 .- "With the total reported 391, the influenza sitwhole civilized world shell shocked, living a-non-normal life, and with sensibilities abnormally acute, there never was a time in all history when it is more important that the English speaking people should stand together, should understand and appreciate the principles and objects of each other," declared Hon. William R. Riddell, justice of the supreme court of Ontario, Canada, yesterday before the meeting of the Ohio State Bar Association

Judge Riddell delivered a scholarly address on "What Is the British Empire?" assailing those who seek to strain the friendly relations between Great Britain and America, and feelingly paying a tribute to the American boys who fought with the Canadians during the late war.

The jurist ironically referred to the great publicity given the sailing of the Buford with 30 Reds, saing that Canada had shipped out over 1.000 Reds.

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out,

Thousands are making this be-neficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, ænemic men and women ever offered di-rect through the druggists and is not at all expensive. Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue-if you are not in better health-if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.
